WHAT ARE SOME DIFFERENCES BETWEEN MIDDLE AND HIGH SCHOOL?

Middle School Expectations

Curriculum: Teachers and students work together to choose classes that fulfill requirements, as well as allow students to explore new subjects. Most classes are pre-determined with limited elective options.

Student clubs: Most clubs are run by the ASB and students can explore without extended commitments. Most student clubs are held during in-school hours.

Teacher Communication: Students are expected to advocate for themselves by taking responsibility for teacher communication, with continued parent guidance as needed. There are no scheduled parent/teacher conferences; teacher/counselor meetings can be scheduled upon request.

High School Expectations

Curriculum: Students begin to choose courses based on rigor and post graduate paths. Students take charge of their own learning and set goals for graduation. Honors and AP courses are more available, and student focus and attendance become paramount.

Student clubs: Most clubs are run by the ASB. Many focused clubs are offered to give students experiences for post-graduate paths. These opportunities become much more targeted, and involvement is highly recommended as it shows a well-rounded, involved student.

Teacher Communication: Students are expected to communicate directly with their teachers and counselors and build relationships. This can often be helpful when requesting letters of recommendation for graduation. There are no scheduled parent/teacher conferences.

WHAT ARE THE MAIN COMMUNICATION LINES BETWEEN SCHOOL AND FAMILIES?

School Communication

Mustang Days: Each August Mustang Days welcomes Freshman students to campus for activities and information sessions led by our RHS Leadership students.

ASB Instagram: This is an excellent way for students to keep on top of ASB and student led programs and events.

Emails: The school principal, teachers, counselors, and staff are available via email for discussions or meetings

Counselor Bulletin: The counseling department updates families with periodic bulletins focused on scheduling, graduation requirements, and mental health issues.

School Website/Social Media: Be sure to bookmark the school website and follow the school social media pages.

WHAT SYSTEMS ARE USED TO KEEP TRACK OF STUDENT ASSIGNMENTS, GRADES, AND FEES?

Redmond High School Website: The school website is the hub for school information. This site will help you find information on club, sports, and activities, course catalogs, daily schedules, curriculum updates, school calendar, and connect you to the RHS staff.

LWSD Website: The district website is a wealth of information. This site can be used to not only access Skyward but to also track school buses, register for athletics, add funds to lunch programs, watch the district calendar, and pay any online fees or fines.

Parent Square: An app and website used by LWSD for all communications between families, teachers, admin, and the district.

Skyward Family Access: This district system is still used to track student grades, test scores, attendance, schedules, and academic history.

School Fees: Most fees can be paid through the LWSD website or directly to the Redmond High School Bookkeeper. Some fees that can be expected in high school may include:

- ASB Fee - Students who wish to participate in after-school sports, music, clubs, or activities are required to pay an ASB fee – $60.
- Classroom Supplies – Some classes may require an additional fee to cover supplies.
- PE Clothes and Spirit Wear – PE uniforms are required when enrolled in a PE class. Spirit Wear, when available, is not required.
- Lunch Accounts – Student lunch accounts that can be replenished through the LWSD website
- Club or Team fees – There are often additional fees that need to be paid to participate in competitive clubs and sports; these fees vary per activity.
- Parking Pass – Passes are required for students to park in school parking lot. Limited free street parking is also available.
- Yearbook – Annual yearbooks can be ordered, typically between $50 and $75 each. There are typically multiple opportunities to purchase yearbooks throughout the year.
- Fines – Fines may accrue due to late library books, laptop repair, unreturned uniforms or equipment, etc.
- Fundraising – The school, the PTSA, and the counseling department run fundraising programs to help offset the costs of programs for students and to help families in need

PTSA: The Redmond High School PTSA is a robust organization that works directly with the school to foster communication between parents and the school. The PTSA provides staff grants, student scholarships, various student programs, and many family education and outreach programs. PTSA memberships and donations can be made during Curriculum Night or the PTSA website.

Scholarships: Financial assistance is always available if needed through the PTSA. These scholarships are completely confidential and handled through the counseling office.

WHAT TO EXPECT FOR ACADEMICS AND TESTS DURING THE SCHOOL YEAR?

Course Catalog: The annual course catalog can be found on the school website. This catalog will list all available classes offered for students as well as information on class paths for middle school. Students will work with their parents, teachers, and counselors to determine the best classes each year. Class choices are typically submitted in January.

Final Schedules: Final schedules are typically released no earlier than one week before classes begin. Please note that when class requests are submitted each year, these are not guaranteed. Class placement is dependent on several factors including previous grades, pre-requisite completion, space availability, etc.

Schedule Changes: Students have the opportunity to request schedule changes at the beginning of each semester. This process is done through a form at the counseling office.

Core Classes: This term refers to classes that are required for all students to complete each year in order to move on to the next grade level or to meet graduation requirements.

Elective Classes: This term refers to classes that students can choose based on their specific interests. There are elective requirements that students must take each year. Electives give students an opportunity to explore subjects that they may not see during a typical school year.

Class Curriculum: A short description of each class can be found in the course catalog. A full syllabus for each class will be handed to each student at the beginning of the semester. It is expected that this syllabus be read, discussed, and signed by both students and parents and then returned to teachers.

Homework: Homework is assigned daily but will vary by class. Honors and AP courses can expect significantly more homework than other classes. Grades can be checked on the Skyward, as well as the MS Teams pages for each class.

Tests and Exams: Tests will be administered periodically and will vary by class. Midterm and final exams are important and will occur in most classes to ensure all students are reaching standards. Test and exam expectations will be clearly stated in the syllabus for each class. Standardized SBA tests will also be administered during certain years.

PSAT/SAT – The PSAT is automatically taken by all sophomores at no charge. The PSAT is also available for juniors who wish to be considered for national merit scholarship; there is a fee for this test. The SAT and ACT tests are available to students for college paths through College Board. Practice tests are also offered for these tests through the Redmond High School PTSA.

Standardized Tests: Various standardized tests will be used throughout the school year. Information on these tests will be clearly communicated through school communication channels.

English Language Learning: Classes are offered to empower new English-speaking students to both participate in classroom curriculum and attain English proficiency.

WHAT CLUBS AND ACTIVITIES ARE AVAILABLE TO STUDENTS?

ASB Clubs and Activities

There are many clubs offered to students at RHS that focus on a variety of different subjects and interests. Clubs often vary year by year, depending on interest. Students are always welcome to start a new club with the support of the ASB and a staff sponsor. While most clubs are casual, many have a competitive level that may include travel and competitions. Involvement in clubs can often be a positive addition to college applications. Each year students have the opportunity to learn about each club and sign up to join during the annual club day. Be sure to encourage your students to find a club or activity that fuels a passion; it's a wonderful way to not only broaden their education but also meet new friends. Below is a list of clubs that have been offered in the past. This year's clubs will be announced in the fall.

STUDENT PARKING AND SCHOOL MAP

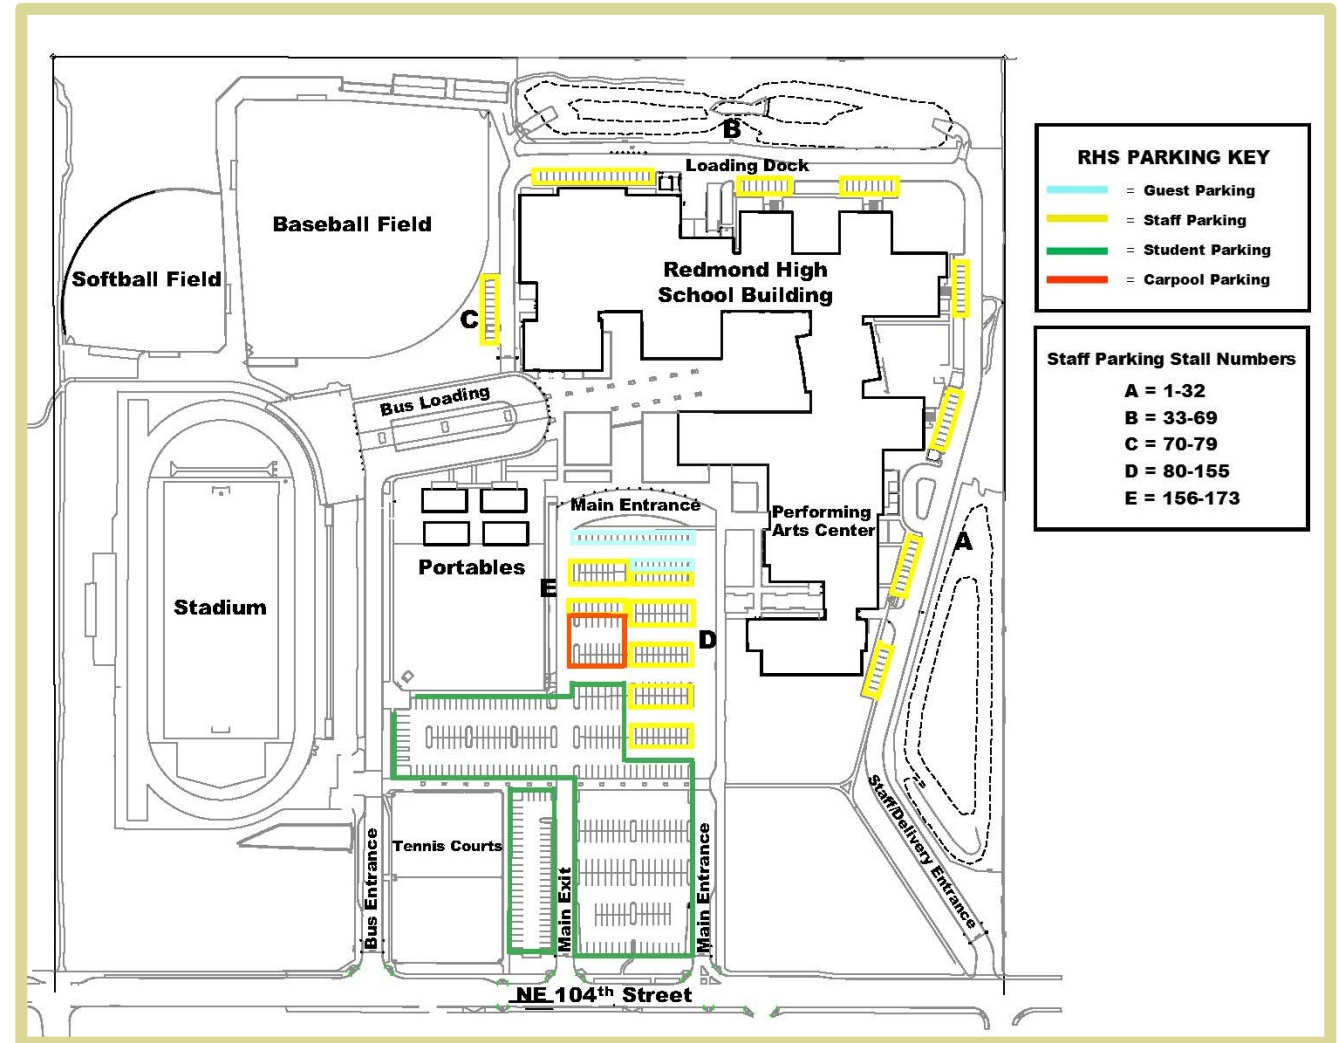

Student Parking at RHS

Licensed students are permitted to drive to school and park on campus. Parking permits are limited, so it is important to reserve yours early! There is an annual fee for permits. Driving students may also acquire an off-campus permit allowing them to leave campus during the school day; this must be signed off by parents.

In-School Visitors

Persons who are not RHS students or district staff are not allowed on campus during school hours without permission. Visitors are required to report to the main office to obtain a name badge. Students not attending RHS are not permitted as guests during the school day. Regular volunteers must complete an LWSD volunteer application.

FRESHMEN FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What if my student can't find his/her way to class? Freshman have an opportunity to familiarize themselves with the school layout during Mustang Days. Also, leadership students are always available to help guide freshmen through the halls.

Will my student get a locker at school? Lockers are provided on a first-come, first-served basis. With limited passing period time, many students opt out of getting a locker and instead use a backpack.

How long before I should plan for college? Right now! Your counselors will guide students each year through a High School and Beyond program to better prepare them for life after high school. This process and the High School and Beyond requirements start in 9th grade.

What is Running Start? An alternative program that allows 11th and 12th grade students to take college courses at Washington's 34 community and technical colleges. Running start students typically begin the program in their junior year and spend the last two years of high school in college level courses rather than on RHS campus. Students can opt into Running Start either part-time or full time.

How do I know my graduation requirements? You will work closely with your counselor to be sure that you are properly fulfilling all of your graduation requirements year by year. In-depth information on your requirements and status can be found in the course catalog and on the LWSD Parent Access page.

Can my student play a sport as a freshman? Yes, all students are eligible to participate if they are currently passing a minimum of six classes, do not have any outstanding sports equipment or fees, have a current registration and health exam on record, and adhere to the athletic Code of Conduct.

Why are there seven periods at high school? The addition of the seventh period has allowed students to explore more elective options while giving additional opportunities to achieve the full 24 credit graduation requirement. Students are required to attend all seven periods each year to be considered full time students.

What is High School and Beyond? The High School and Beyond Plan is a robust and structured program for preparing students for life after high school.

What does the Career Counseling Center do? Help with post graduation plans by providing counseling, discussion panels, and college and career speakers and visitors to help guide students and make a plan.

Which of the Associate Principals should I contact if necessary? You can always call the front office to schedule a call or an in-person appointment. The associate principals are Rob Jones, Christine McMillan, and Trina Gilday
